

ARCHIVE: SWEENEY ART GALLERY 2005-2006

- GRADUATE FELLOW GINA GREENE

Project Title:	Community Outreach
Project Description:	This project focused on increasing community outreach efforts and supporting efforts to set up shows in the Sweeney Art Gallery's new downtown location. The focus was placed on coordinating events for the First Thursday Arts Walk and First Sunday Arts Walk, which included publicity, preparation of gallery tour and artists' information, and development of specific events for Arts Walk.
Site/# of Presentations:	Sweeney Art Gallery
Site/Audience Reached:	Sweeney Art Gallery - 89
Total # of Presentations:	Not Applicable
Total Audience Reached:	89
Fellow's Bio:	Gina Greene is pursuing her MA in Art and Architectural History. She received her undergraduate degree from Harvard College where she studied English and American Literature, and obtained her BFA in Painting at California College of Art in San Francisco. Her research focuses on the art and architecture of late 19 th century France with an emphasis on representations of femininity and feminine space in the modern city.

- GRADUATE FELLOW DEBORAH HALLETT

Project Title:	Website Development and Artist Correspondence
Project Description:	This project consisted of content gathering and writing for the gallery website, specifically creating a template used for information gathering and consolidation. The project also made each exhibit available through the website. The online space served as a vehicle for attracting visitors within the student population, the Los Angeles area and the Inland Empire.
Site/# of Presentations:	Not Applicable
Site/Audience Reached:	Not Applicable
Total # of Presentations:	Not Applicable
Total Audience Reached:	8,300 (average website visits per month)
Fellow's Bio:	Deborah Hallett is pursuing her PhD in English. She received her MA in American Literature from San Diego State University, and her BA in English from UC Santa Barbara. Her most recent scholarship focused on class dynamics in literature of the Civil War Reconstruction.