

THE HARE & THE TORTOISE

Final part of the Odissi Program.
Sinjini Chatterjee,
Graduate Student,
Department of Dance,
University of California, Riverside,
Gluck Program of Arts

One fine day,

And a tortoise

Were doing their chores in the sunshine

A woman with dark hair and a bindi is standing in front of a rustic stone wall. She is wearing a yellow dress with a white geometric pattern and a grey sleeve. She is making a peace sign with her right hand. The text 'the hare' is written in a white, cursive font across the lower part of the image.

the hare

A woman with long dark hair, wearing a yellow dress with a white geometric pattern and blue cuffs, is posing against a rustic stone wall. She is smiling and gesturing with her hands, one pointing upwards and the other held out. The text "Was making fun" is overlaid in a white script font across the lower part of the image.

Was making fun

Of the tortoise for being slow get anywhere

??

the hare asked with a mocking laugh

'Yes', replied
the tortoise

A young woman with dark hair, a bindi, and a yellow patterned top, sitting against a stone wall with her hands clasped. The text "and sooner than you think!" is written in white cursive in the upper right corner.

and sooner than you think!

I will challenge you to a race and prove it

I am
amused
by you,
Tortoise

Then let's do a race to prove who is fastest

*Thus, the race
begins!!*

The tortoise

and the Hare

Walked to a nearby tree and decided to race till the big lake

The hare set off quickly....

He hopped

And he skipped

He jumped over logs

And ran in leaps

The tortoise...

Started slow, looking here

*And
there..*

Admiring
butterflies as he walked

The hare...

Felt tired after running for so long

He sat down beneath a tree.

He soon
fell asleep

Knowing that the tortoise was far behind and could never reach him

The tortoise kept walking....

Left foot

And right foot

And
repeat

He did not stop, and soon...

He came across the sleeping hare

Smiling to himself,
the tortoise...

Kept
walking!!

The hare woke up...

Looked around

Searching for the tortoise... there was no sign of him

He knew he had won the race!!

*Jumping
in joy...*

*The hare
leaped towards the lake!!!*

Upon reaching the lake...

A close-up shot of a woman with dark hair and a bindi, wearing a yellow and white patterned top. She has a surprised or indignant expression, with wide eyes and an open mouth, and is pointing her right index finger towards the viewer. The background is a rough, textured stone wall.

He was astonished

To see the tortoise

Resting by the shore of the lake!!

The hare realized, he had misjudged his own abilities

And
apologized to the tortoise

Moral: Slow and Steady, wins the race!!

