

COLLAGE: CREATING A NEW ART OBJECT

Pablo
Picasso, Guitar,
Sheet Music
and Wine
Glass
(1912)

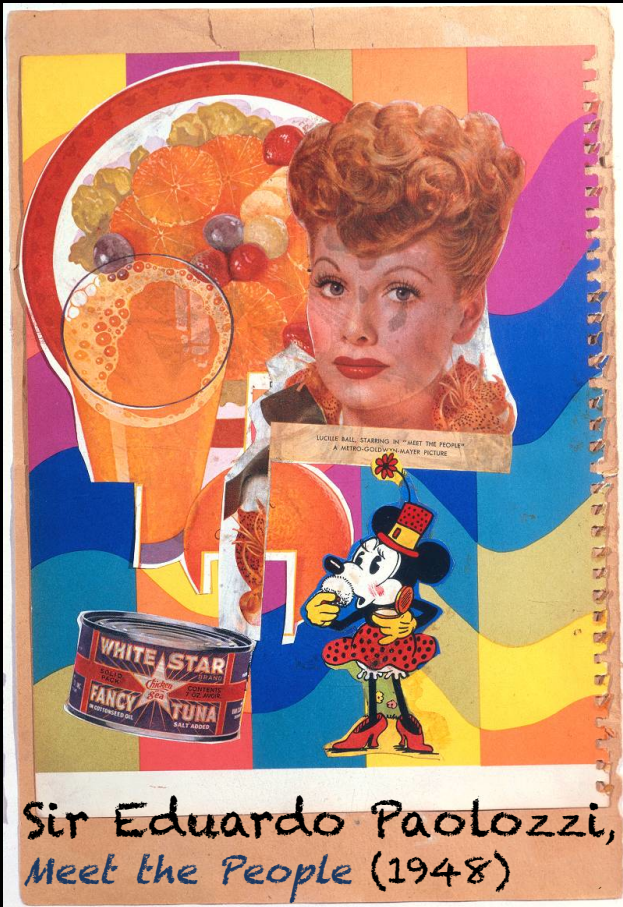

What is COLLAGE?

- An art form & a technique
- Combines "found," or pre-existing materials into a two-dimensional work

George Grosz and John
Heartfield,
*Life and Activity in Universal
City at 12.05 Midday*
(1919)

What Draws Your Eye?

Sir Eduardo Paolozzi,
Meet the People (1948)

Nancy Standlee,
Poire (2010)

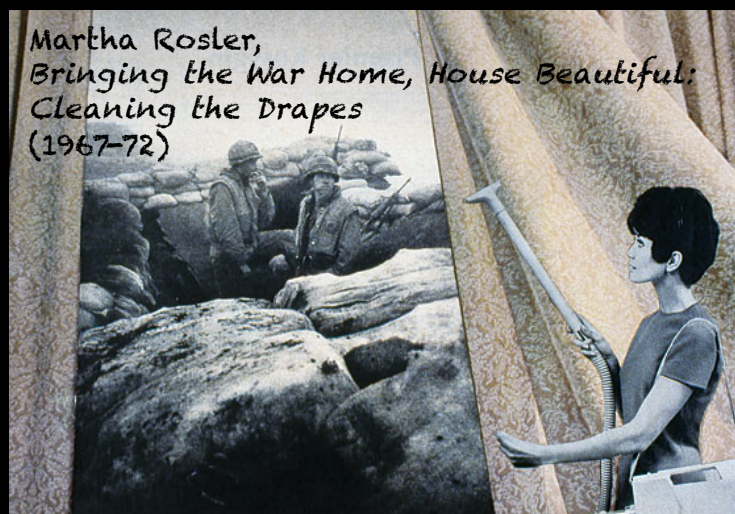

Sir Peter Blake,
Manhattan Boogie Woogie (2009)

Texture
Text
&
Image
Composition
Space
Color

Creating Your Collage

Questions to Get Started:

- Which pictures or words, colors or fonts stand out to you from the "found" materials?
- Do you want to cut your pieces to create smooth, straight edges? Or tear them for a different texture?
- How might you use WORDS or LETTERS in your collage?
- Where will you position the pieces of your collage?
- Will your collage create a whole new object or be more random?

Created by:
Rachel Zimmermann
rachel.zimmermann@email.ucr.edu
<https://www.linkedin.com/pub/rachel-zimmermann/29/150/736>